DUKE FUND MUST GROW FASTER; HOW CHAMPION MADE LONDON HIT

Raymond C. Brown Writes that Hawaii's Great Swimmer
Has Kept Modesty

With approximately $1200 in the fund being raised to secure a house and lot for Duke Kahanamoku, Hawaii's world-champion swimmer, the committee in charge of the fund has found that the people of Hawaii are allowing interest to lag in this movement.

Chairman W. T. Rawlins of the committee said this morning that the committee now has three available pieces of property in sight, but that it does not feel justified in going ahead with arrangements to secure any of them until it is certain the fund will be sufficient. He estimated this morning that about $2500 will be necessary.

Mr. Rawlins has received a letter from Raymond C. Brown, agent of the Territorial Board of Immigration, from London, in which Mr. Brown pays a high tribute to Duke's modesty after his Olympic triumphs. Says Mr. Brown:

"Duke has been in London a few days, and I have spent some little time with him and hunting a silk bathing suit. After all the glory attached to winning the world's championship and the praise that has been showered upon him, Duke is still the same unassuming young fellow he always has been, and I am glad for the editorial in the Star-Bulletin of July 9:

"Duke Kahanamoku's consistent success at the Olympic games and the many way in which he has borne himself through a period of victory that might well upset the modesty of any athlete, are sources of pride to his friends here and reflect credit on the Islands.

"It was with a great deal of pride that I introduced him to some of my acquaintances here and observed the admiration of those people for a world's champion. Do not think that his wanting a silk bathing suit is far from bearing out my statement as to his modesty. The fact of the matter is that the suit he was looking for is the racing suit such as was used by swimmers in Stockholm, and is made of silk and very light. He will probably go back to cotton at Waikiki."

The Star-Bulletin, which is receiving subscriptions to the fund and has already turned over more than $500 to the committee, takes pleasure in acknowledging a check for $50 from the Kamehameha Alumni Association, accompanied by the following letter:

"To the Editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

"Sir:—As well-wishers of Duke Kahanamoku and believers in the promotion of clean and healthy sports of all kinds, wherever and whenever found, and primarily for helping out in rolling up a large majority for the 'Duke Kahanamoku Fund,' we herewith enclose our check for $50 as a means towards the desired end. We respectfully subscribe ourselves,

"KAMEHAMEHA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

"By J. ORDENSTERN,
"Treasurer."

Chairman Rawlins reports a subscription of $50 from F. F. Baldwin and of $10 from Secretary H. P. Wood of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

The benefit baseball game a week ago resulted in the collection of about $110 for the fund.

The proceeds of the benefit concert and ball game at Maui are still to be received, and there is a subscription list now being made up at the city hall on which more than $50 has been given. It is proposed to raise it to $100.

And still the fund is only a little more than half secured. Duke is expected back here about the middle of September, and the committee hopes that the people will begin to send in their contributions so that the gift may be assured by the time he arrives.

U. S. GRAND JURY READY TO REPORT

The Federal grand jury probably will return a partial report to the U. S. District Court at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Though no definite information as to the nature of this report can be obtained from the District Attorney, it is thought that the jury will report indictments against Chris Cora George, George Chrones and Alfred Stanes, the three men arrested by the customs inspectors yesterday and Wednesday with contraband opium in their possession.

Indictments of one or two soldiers on a charge of desertion, or aiding and abetting in attempts to desert, may be included in the returns of the jury.

The Federal grand jurors tomorrow will receive their pay for service during the month of August. They are to meet this afternoon for a short session, and probably will convene at 9 o'clock again tomorrow morning. Federal Court will convene at the same hour tomorrow.

WASN'T TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE, AT ALL

"There was no meeting or attempted meeting of the Republican territorial central committee last night, and the morning paper was mistaken in its story," said Chairman A. D. Cooper of the Republican territorial committee today. "We did not call a meeting nor try to hold one. I understand it was the county committee, which is an entirely different matter."

Asked as to meeting of the territorial central committee, Chairman Cooper said that a routine meeting has been called for tomorrow at noon.

TO BE GOVERNOR OF THE CANAL ZONE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—Col. William V. Judson, United States Army engineer commissioner of the District of Columbia, probably will be appointed governor of the Panama canal zone as soon as President Taft signs the pending bill. Colonel Judson's appointment has been urged by Colonel Goethals, builder of the canal, and by many officials here who have to do with canal affairs.

Judson has a long experience in river and harbor engineering work and is the inventor of many labor-saving engineering appliances. He was one of the American officers with Kuropatkin and was captured with a Russian division by the Japanese at the battle of Mukden.

BIG PICTURE FOR HAWAIIAN EXHIBIT

D. Howard Hitchcock, the premier artist of Hawaii, returned yesterday from a flying trip to the Coast, where he placed his son in the Hitchcock (no relation) Military Academy, San Rafael, and left his wife and two other children in Berkeley to spend the winter.

"I have come back to work on my big painting for the Hawaiian exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition," Mr. Hitchcock said this afternoon.

"It will be eight feet by fifteen feet in dimensions and the subject will probably be Hanalei valley. I am going to Kauai next week to gather field notes for the large canvas, which will take perhaps two or three months."

STOCK PRICES ARE UNCHANGED

There is no change in quotations of stocks in today's list, but $500 Hilo sixes sold down three-quarters at 101.25. Olaa was the only sugar changing hands on the board, retaining its late recovery to 7 for a total of fifteen shares. Sixty shares of Brewery sold at 21.25.

Between sessions, 76 Oahu sold at 27.75, 50 H. C. & S. at 44.50 and 33 Oahu Railway at 140.

COOPER AGAIN RULES AGAINST ROSA LEE TYLER

Twice reversed by the supreme court in the one case, Circuit Judge Cooper has handed down his third decision sustaining the contention of the damage suit of Rosa Lee Tyler against the Honolulu Amusement Company, asking for $299. She claims this amount is due her as the balance of a twelve weeks' contract to perform as actress at a local theater.

The defendant alleges the contract terminated at the end of the first week, when she was denied permission to continue her act. The case has been dragging through the courts since early last spring. Through her counsel, Attorney Lymer, she has given notice of exception to the circuit court's latest ruling.
